

Woodie Cockrum

One of our Sports greatest ambassadors, whose promotional efforts have always been done for the good of the game, not for personal gain or acknowledgment.

Your efforts have helped shuffleboard to thrive in Missouri, which has become a leader with in the shuffleboard community.

You have been a roll model for your fellow players, and have influenced our game on many levels. The integrity and sportsmanship with which you have done so puts you in a small group of the most respected names in our sport.

In recognition of your efforts as a teacher and promoter,-

We proudly present the

SOL LIPKIN AWARD

In recognition of your extraordinary in contributions to the advancement of our sport.

October 31, 2008

