COUNTDOWN TO R E N O 32
DAYS

A big thank you to Glen & Jeri Ingram of GI's Town Tavern for the generous donation to www.eshuffleboard.com!

Red rover, red rover send RENO right over!

I can hardly believe it's only 32 days until Reno! I probably should get my fees sent in this week before the October 8th penalty date. My flight is booked and I'm making arrangements to spend the night before my 8:00 AM flight in Indianapolis at a hotel where I can leave my car for the week. I'll arrive in Reno at noon - 1:00 o'clock Friday and getting settled in my 4th floor room and checking out the facility the rest of the day.

Work, work, work

I apologize for not getting a newsletter out sooner. It's the nature of my job that this is the busiest time of year, building advertising budgets for clients for 2006, booking contracts, sending out media and a whole bunch of other boring things. I would be working 10-12 hour days even if I wasn't taking a week off right in the middle of it that I have to cover the work for. Any way, that's my story and I'm sticking to it.

Tournament Results

Please keep sending tournament results as soon as possible after your tournament and I'll get them posted usually the same day or the next day after I receive them.

Journey's End welcomes 13 new players...

Journey's End Bar & Grill welcomed 13 "new" players to the friendly confines September 17, 2005 for the 1.0> tournament in Bourbon, IN. GI's Town Tavern in Summitville provided 8 players to the rouster including Jeri "I'll never stay up until 3 AM before a tournament again" Ingram. Several players were in their first tournament ever and for others it was a return to tournament play after 25 years! Players from Ft. Wayne and Hometown were welcomed to the Journey's End fold.

1st Doubles Mike Grimes & Jon Mauk

This tournament can be a grueling event if you play in both singles and doubles, as most people do. You may play back to back to back for several hours before getting a break. The only down time is if you win a bracket and have to wait for the losers bracket to catch up.

Just ask Tony and Shelly Skinner! Tony put Shelly in the losers bracket in the singles in the very first game of the day. They ended up in the losers bracket in the doubles also. I don't know how many games they each played but it was a boat load! The character of the day had to be Shelly. As they are playing their way out of the losers bracket in the doubles she suddenly stopped and said to the room at large, "Do you realize the only one to beat me in singles today was my husband?". Well, we had to laugh out loud, because yes, we DID all realize that and had thought she did also. It's a tribute to the level of her concentration that she didn't.

1st Singles Tony Skinner

Shelly Skinner

April 15, 2006 will be the next Amateur event. Flyers will be available online early in the new year. We're not sure if it will be 1.0> or 1.5> and above but it will be posted ASAP.
