A short field of eight players was on hand with four players left at the end of the first qualifying round to divide up the $248 in entry fee and hick money. Muniz battled through qualifying on Oskar's three fast boards but wound up second in points to Bellflower's Craig Amundson. Amundson scored 48 points after six plays on each of the bar's shuffleboards. Muniz totaled 43 followed by series point leader Karl Spickelmier with 42 and Anaheim's John Fisher with

Random ramblings and rumblings

MEDICAL REPORT — Nine-year old son, Sammy, had successful surgery to remove a tumor from the fibia just below his right knee last Wednesday. He's home now and recovering rapidly, but with as much time as he's spending playing the Game Cube, no one will ever beat him again.

Mom and Dad survived, too, despite some hand-wringing. The sobering moment came when the surgeon — an expert in tumors and always ready with a smile and a quick joke — came into the room and said only “that's a big hole.”

We knew going in that the tumor was benign (not malignant or cancerous) so we didn't have to worry about that.

One thing we learned was to make sure the doctors and nurses are on the same page as far as the discharge plan.

We ran into that problem and it made discharge the hardest part of the trip. I found it disconcerting when there was no explanation of how to get Sammy in and out of the wheelchair without hurting the bad leg. In fact, our initial discharge order was “go find a wheelchair and you can take your son home.”

Other than that, the folks at Children's Hospital in Seattle were wonderful to work with and be around.

To all of you who sent emails or good thoughts to Sammy. Thank you. I'm no longer surprised by the hearts of people in shuffleboard. You're great people.

BACK ON BOARD — I was heartened by the recent rash of letters to the editor voicing opinions about the rating system. I wish we'd have that many letters weekly on a variety of subjects.

Communication is the best way to improve our game and Lagging4s is willing to facilitate discussion. Name-calling is the only thing that will keep your letter or opinion piece from being printed.

And ratings aren't the only subject open for discussion.

I'd like to know what people think about a national (or international) shuffleboard organization to govern all of the game. State and regional associations appear to be working, but there is no recognized leadership beyond that.

Bowling and golf are two sports with such organizations. Pool and darts, our partners in the tavern sports arena, have more than one leadership group and I'm not sure there are enough shuffleboard players for something like that to be successful.

What do you think.

RENO BOUND — All roads in the world of table shuffleboard lead to the Sands/Regency Hotel in Reno, Nev. where the North American Shuffleboard Championships are just 10 days away. Maybe I should be practicing instead of writing.

The 15th edition of this international tournament promises to be one of the biggest ever with eight days of exciting events. The 15th anniversary party, which includes the awarding of the prestigious Sol Lipkin award and John McDermott's induction into the National Shuffleboard Hall of Fame, could be one of the highlights. The party is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 5.

I'm looking for a partner for Division I doubles. If you're interested, send an email to lagging4s@olympus.net.

LOOKING AHEAD — With November only a few days away, it's time for sponsors to begin planning tournaments for 2005. Lagging4s will list your tournaments at no charge (fliers are $20 for 4 weeks and one separate mailing) if you send the dates to lagging4s@olympus.net.

Sending dates to lagging4s also gives you the chance to qualify for $150 in added money for one of your tournaments. The money comes from advertising in the weekly ezine.

All tournaments listed by Dec. 15 will have a chance at the added prize money. It's not a lot, but it's a way for the magazine to say “thank you” to readers.

Scott Auten and his dad, Steve, celebrate Scott's Open Singles victory.

72 players vie for honors in Michigan event

Another successful turnout occurred at Skip's during this year's Skip's Fall Bash. A total of 72 shuffleboard patrons participated in this three day tournament (surpassing last year's 68), including the following events: AB Draw Partner on Friday, ABC Draw Partner on Saturday, and Open Singles on Sunday. Just under $13,000 was up for grabs. Players came from far and wide, including Nevada's Chris Passariello and Missouri's Jerry Romay and Frank Edelen. Thanks for your continued support in your travels!

On Friday, 22 teams participated in the AB Draw Partner event. Taking first place year were Bill Kane and Slick Parrish (sponsored by Jim Earl Madary). Second place winners were Bill Niswonger and CoCo Brown (sponsored by Bill Kane), and third place recipients were Jim Earl Madary & George Nelson (sponsored by Jim Long). Fourth place went to Dennis Stantz & Carolyn Perry (sponsored by Mark Holland).

On Saturday, 20 teams battled in the ABC Draw Partner Event. Fierce competition resulted in first place victory going to John Tischler, Don Parkhurst, and Slick Parrish (sponsored by Mark Holland) with Jim Earl Madary, Bill Niswonger, and Melinda Flynn (sponsored by Betty Parrish) finishing in second, and Dennis Stantz, Cindy Brown, and Terrie Tischler in third (sponsored by Betty Parrish). Finishing in fourth place were Jim Long, Bobby Auten, and Deb Kern (sponsored by Richard Reist).

Sunday heat continued, as 16 people competed in the Open Singles. Scott Auten went on to take first place (sponsored by Steve Auten), with Jim Long in second (sponsored by Scott Auten) and Chris Passariello (sponsored by Jimmy Kumpula) in third close behind.

Tournament Directors CoCo and Cindy Brown would like to thank the many people who helped to ensure the continued success of this annual event.

Special recognition should be given to Mr. and Mrs. Skip Sliwa (owners of Skip's Lounge) and the rest of the staff for their generous hospitality, including a great food spread.

Special thanks are also extended to Bracketeer Rob Kern, Carolyn Perry, Alonzo Cottrell, Co-Directors Tom and Jackie Meagher, and auctioneer's Steve Auten, Jerry Siebert, and Bill Kane.

As a Beta Tester for the new Computer Peas program currently under construction, I would also like to personally thank Eddie Brayman and the rest of the Beta Testers for the wonderful job being done on this new age software. This was the first non-simulated tournament I have used Peas for and the capabilities and efficiencies of this program most certainly bring shuffleboard tournament technology to a new level!

— Steve 'CoCo' Brown

Kelso's Ryan Devlin eyes the target during the Grand Masters at the Whistling Oyster earlier this year. He and partner, Jim Tribble, won the Kelso Legion's Open Doubles over the weekend.

Devlin-Tribble earn rooms with Kelso victory

KELSO, Wash. — Jim Tribble and Ryan Devlin won't be paying for hotel rooms for the North American Shuffleboard Championships after winning the open doubles tournament at Guy Rathbun American Legion Post 25 Oct. 16-17.

For Tribble, who has been hotter than Reno in the middle of summer, it was his third consecutive tournament victory in the Pacific Northwest. He and Don Mitchell won the open doubles during the Jack Steffensen Memorial Tournament in Tacoma on Sept. 26 and then teamed with Clara Kenney and Judy George to win the Blue Goose, Port Orchard, A-B-C title Oct. 9-10.

Tribble and Devlin, a fast-rising player with some national exposure from the Kelso area, went undefeated in the two-day event.

Second place went to Don Mitchell and Ken Simmons with Dick Heflin-Mike Olson.

Jim Long and Greg Massey won the Open Doubles at Journey's End Bar & Grill shown here with tournament director Keith Spencer.

41 points. These four players advanced to the final round.

Huntington Beach's Richard Warren, Long Beach's Gary Jones, Whittier's Tim O'Brien and Long Beach's Susie Jones failed to make the finals. Ms. Jones played was playing in her first Crazy Eight tournament.

The pill draw for the final round saw Muniz leading off and Bellflower's Spickelmier with the hammer. Muniz matched his total from the first round with his fast play and hard-hitting shooting style to leave the remaining three players with a target to shoot for. Fisher and Amundson followed, each displaying a more deliberate and cerebral style of play, but both came up short – Fisher by three points and Amundson by two. Spickelmier followed and the Southern California professional was off his normal steady form trailing Muniz by 17 points entering play on the final board. He too came up short and ended up six points behind the winner.

Spickelmier continues to lead in the tournament series with two wins, a total of 50 points and $639 in winnings. Muniz tightened the gap in second place nine points behind followed by a tie between Fisher and Amundson with 36 points. Warren trails by one point for fifth place.

The series ends on Saturday, December 4, with a total cash fund of $290 plus to be divided among the top four finishers in total points. Oskar's owner Oscar Ugarte is contributing an additional $200 of added money into the point fund. Paramount's Paul Weber is the tournament director.

EMAIL: Send stories, pictures, advertisements and fliers to:

lagging4s@olympus.net

PICTURES: Send them as large as your camera outputs them. Photos that are reduced in size won't reproduce as well as larger ones.

PICTURE HINTS: Use a flash for indoor shots. Have players take off their hats, they make bad shadows. If you're shooting outside, have the sun at your back and shoot flash if your camera will do that. Remember to identify everyone in the picture
