Turn in listings add money to tourney

LAGGING

BY JIM MANDERS

When Lagging4s was launched last May, I promised that a portion of advertising revenue would be put back into table shuffleboard in the form of added money for tournaments.

I had hoped to be able to give a little gift each month and spread the wealth into every geographical area.

My revenue expectations were optimistic, but that won't change the promise. There isn't enough money in the fund to spread it across the country, but there is $200 that could help attract a few more players to your tournament.

There's only one catch to the $200. To qualify for the drawing that will lead to a winner, your tournament must be included in the listings that begin on Page 3 of today's edition.

To send me your tournament listing — the deadline is 5 p.m. PST Sunday, Jan. 16 to qualify for the $200 prize — all you need to do is email the information to me at lagging4s@olympus.net. Tournaments currently listed area already qualified.

What happens if a tournament in early January is chosen in the random drawing? That money will be sent to the tavern owner for after-the-fact distribution.

In addition to the $200, Lagging4s will publish the flier of the winner for free for the normal cycle of four emailings and one separate notice.

There is no cost, or subscription requirement, to be included in the tournament listings or Home Boards, the listing of places to play across North America.

I know that I've said this several other times, but information is the lifeblood of table shuffleboard and I'd like to have 10 times as much as I'm currently receiving for the magazine.

All it takes is an email and I'll do the rest. Sometimes I use information verbatim and others I rewrite for ease of reading.

If you write about the game . . . submit a story and I'll make every attempt to publish it. Unfortunately, there's no budget for these submissions.

Pictures. Do you take pictures of shuffleboard players. If so, send them in.

Also, you folks who run leagues are more than welcome to send your standings and other news for publication.

The bottom line is that I'm asking for your help in providing more information to the international table shuffleboard community. Please.

Downey Elks to host Sweethearts Tournament

DOWNEY, Ca. – Shuffleboard players at the Downey Elks Lodge have been anxiously awaiting the opportunity to host a tournament in their upstairs game room. And with Valentine's Day on Monday, February 14, lodge organizers decided to honor the day with a Sweetheart's Mixed Doubles tournament for the preceding weekend – February 12 – 13.

The event will use a handicap system that tournament director Chris Brown believes will add some balance to the doubles event. The negative maximum allowed will be a three-point handicap for some of the lower rated teams. The handicap system is not new to the table game, but has not been seen in California in sometime. Ms. Brown hopes that the negative handicap will attract some of the newer players at the Elks Lodge. The 2004 Bower's Rating System will be used for tournament play.

The Sweetheart's event begins on Saturday, February 12, with signups scheduled for 9 a.m. and a sponsor sale at 10 a.m. Play will begin immediately following the sponsor sale on the Elks three fast shuffleboards. The format calls for a double elimination best two-out-of-three games in the winner's bracket and a single 21-point game in the loser's bracket. The format is subject to change based on player turnout. The entry fee is $50 per team. Doors open each day at 8:30 a.m. for practice.

The Downey Elks last hosted a shuffleboard tournament six years ago when George Lucas was inducted into the California Shuffleboard Hall of Fame.

In addition to the tournament activities at the Lodge for the weekend include the Ladies of the Elks hosting a Saturday lunch along with Saturday evening Pizza and Beer night that for $10 gets you pizza, beer and entertainment. Sunday morning features the Esquires' breakfast with various menu choices.

For more tournament information contact Tournament Director Chris Brown at (562) 756 0978 or the Downey Elks Lodge at (562) 803 3557. The Elks Lodge is located at 11233 Woodruff Avenue in Downey.
