by CoCo Brown

Another successful turnout occurred at Kane's Club Car during this year's Michigan Open Tournament in honor of George and Donna Wilbur. A total of 103 shuffleboard patrons participated in this four day tournament, including the following events: Mixed Doubles on Friday, Three Person Bring Open and Three Person Bring Division II on Saturday, Open Singles and Division II Singles on Sunday, and Open Doubles and Division II Doubles on Monday. Just under $42,000 was up for grabs, as a NEW RECORD was set for the Michigan Open Tournament!

On Friday, 27 teams participated in the Mixed Doubles event. First place victory went to Alonzo Cottrell and Sandy Blade (sponsored ## Winstson, Ore.

Rural American Championship

WINSTON, Ore. — The Rural American Championship at Steve Fisher's 99 Tavern and Willee's Sports Bar usually attracts one of the largest fields in the Pacific Northwest for the five-day event. The tournament opens on Thursday, Sept. 2 and will conclude on Monday, Sept. 6 if necessary.

This year Fisher has made some changes in the format for the 2004 tournament in this southwestern Oregon town.

One of the changes is the addition of a C singles tournament.

"I've had requests and the idea sounds good to me," Fisher said recently.

Fisher said the division point between B and C players hasn't been determined but expects it will be around 2.5, using the Bower's Rating system. The C singles will be single game, double elimination.

Players rated 1 to will again be able to enter the Open singles on a graduated entry fee scale.

"Allowing 1s to enter into the Open singles at a graduated entry turned out to be a booster for the event," Fisher said. The entry fee for -1s and 0s is $200 with 1s, and higher, paying $100. The Open Singles is 2 out of 3 in the winners' and losers' brackets.

The Open singles, which often draws the best West Coast players, starts at noon

Some 1s could be faced with a decision because players above .51 can enter the B singles where the entry fee is $25 per player. The B singles is single game, double elimination.

The tournament opens at 6 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 2 with an A-B draw that has a $20 entry fee.

In addition to the Open Singles on Friday, Sept. 3, there'll be an open draw at 3 p.m. It has a $20 entry fee.

The B singles begins at 9 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 4 and the C singles gets underway at 10 a.m.

The Open doubles begins at 9 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 5. The entry fee is $150 per team. The format is two-out-of-three in the winners' and losers' brackets.

The B doubles is also scheduled to start at 9 a.m. Sunday. Teams must add to 4 to be eligible and the entry fee is $50 per team. This event is best of three in the winners' bracket with a single game in the losers' bracket.

Fisher says the Labor Day weekend event has averaged more than 73 players a year.

There's RV parking available for the first 8 to 10 rigs that arrive, but there is other RV parking in the area.

There are also a number of motels in the area and Steve's listed them on the flier that's on Page 5 of this week's Lagging4s.

The tournament will be played on eight boards in the two loca

Several acknowledgements & awards were given this weekend. Mike Papa received an Award of Appreciation for his contributions to Shuffleboard. The very first Pioneers and Legends Award was given to an emotional George and Donna Wilbur. Afterwards, George Wilbur was inducted into The Michigan Shuffleboard Hall of Fame.

No article would be complete without giving the tremendous thanks to those who helped make this tournament "one for the books"!

First and foremost, I would like to thank EVERYONE who came to this wonderful tournament, especially those from out of state (Indiana and Ohio). I would like to thank Darol Nelson for coming all the way to Michigan from Oregon to play. Thanks to Bracketeer Rob Kern, Cindy Brown, Debbie Kern, and Carolyn Perry for their well organized tournament operation. Thanks to Mike Johnson, who I'm sure everyone would agree is the ABSOLUTE HANDS DOWN BEST AUCTIONEER in this wonderful game of Shuffleboard. Thanks to Bill and Brenda Kane & staff for their generous hospitality (and of course Brenda's homemade spaghetti dinner provided to everyone). Thanks to Ron Palmer, JR Lopez, and Mark Holland for their bar-b-cue expertise (and of course what Durand tournament would be complete without Melinda Flynn's wonderful Mexican dip!). Thanks to Dan Kent and Dennis Bittner for being such good fishermen (fish dinner was great!). I would also like to give recognition to Bjerne Sunde, as everyone was happy to see him come to Durand. Special thanks also go to George and Donna Wilbur for all you do and for your combined donation of a set of Federation Weights with John McDermott.

Last and certainly not least, I would like to recognize and thank John McDermott for the many, many contributions this weekend. There was also an auction for a table-top sized replica of a shuffleboard table (outstanding craftsmanship with actually working lights) with a portion of the proceeds going to The Michigan Shuffleboard Hall of Fame. After a final bidding battle between the Wilburs and John, John won, only to turn around and give the prize to George and Donna Wilbur!

On a personal note, I would also like to publicly thank Betty Parrish for all you do to help support the game of Shuffleboard. Your participation in awards and recognitions does not go unnoticed! We all love you Betty!

The ezine of table shuffleboard

Odds and ends from the world of shuffleboard

by Jim Manders, publisher

□ Attention shuffleboard sponsors and players in the Southeast. A great shuffleboard promoter is moving to Tennessee and he's looking for shuffleboard action and fishing partners.

His name is Randy Ables and he burst onto the shuffleboard scene in Port Orchard, Wash. about 4 years ago. Since then, he's honed his skills to the point where he's an excellent B player.

Additionally, he's proven to be an adept tournament and league director. When Dee Hudson and her late husband, Larry, wanted to organize an in-house league at the Blue Goose and Red Dog Saloon it was Randy who took over and made it work smoothly for the past three years.

Randy and his wife, Betty, are moving to the Memphis area. Betty, has been promoted into a high position in the Navy which brought the transfer. Is there an ocean in Memphis?

Road Trips

Talk about dedication to shuffleboard. Here's an excerpt from an email sent by Lyn and Debbie Dearing, who live near Cincinnati:

"There's not much action here so we travel to Muncie, Ind. to play against some very good, and very wonderful people. They treat us like family, and have since the first day we showed up there. We have some great stories to tell someday. After 30 some years, I should have a couple, shouldn't I?"

Lyn says his wife's nickname is "Deadeye Debbie" and he likes to call himself "Big Dick Daddy From Cincinnati."

I'm having a difficult time not commenting on Lyn's nickname.

Oddball peas

Bill Bailey had a round robin draw peas for partner event over the weekend at his Whistling Oyster in Quilcene, Wash.

In the first two draws the eight players had exactly the same partners, causing one wag to wonder if anyone had remembered to shake up the pea bottle between draws.

Talk about a tough field. Four of the players were members of the Pacific Northwest Shuffleboard Hall of Fame.

The Whistling Oyster's 15th Grand Masters Tournament is July 28-Aug. 1.
