O'Brien-Manes capture St. Patrick's tournament

BELLFLOWER, Calif. – Whittier's Tim O'Brien and Downey's Jan Manes captured the third annual St. Patrick's Day Tournament held on the weekend of March 18-20, at the Rosewood Pub in Bellflower. The winners sailed through a 15-team field undefeated to take home the winner's share of a combined $4,225 purse.

Robert "Cowboy" Wade of Hemet and Huntington Beach's Jeff Posthumous battled through the loser's bracket to take second place following their loss in the championship game to the tournament winners. Third place went to Paramount's Paul Weber and Bellflower's Carl Martin with Downey's Chris Brown and Long Beach's Susie Jones finishing in fourth.

Tournament play began Friday, March 18, following the sponsor sale that generated $3,475 and saw Wade and Posthumous and the Bellflower couple of Joanie and Allan Healey the high bid teams. Chris Brown was the sponsor of the O'Brien and Manes winning combination. Weber handled the team auctions.

On Saturday, Rosewood owners B.B. Boik and Bud Taylor hosted a free buffet for tournament players and their regular customers and it seemed there were snacks available for everyone throughout the three day weekend. In a show of good sportsmanship between the Rosewood Pub and Oskar's Sports Bar and Grill owners Boik and Oscar Ugarte played together as teammates during the shuffleboard event. The two bars are only a few blocks away from each other in Bellflower.

An additional $1.00 was charged to each participant's entry fee and a 50/50 Draw was held that generated a total of $115 that will be sent to Ron and Debbie Bowers in support of the Bowers Rating System. Hope Weber handled the 50/50 ticket sales in benefit of the Bowers.

Robert Davidson served as the tournament director with the generous support of Yorba Linda's Bob Brunskill on the bracketing board. The Rosewood's three fast shuffleboards were in excellent condition and played as fast as they are known to be.

Special thanks goes to the Rosewood owners and bartenders and all who helped make this year's tournament a success.

A birthday surprise brings happiness

Reprinted from The Hammer, monthly newsletter of the Missouri Shuffleboard Players Association. Author Craig "Doc" Bendickson is vice president of the association and owner of Doc's Shuffle Inn.

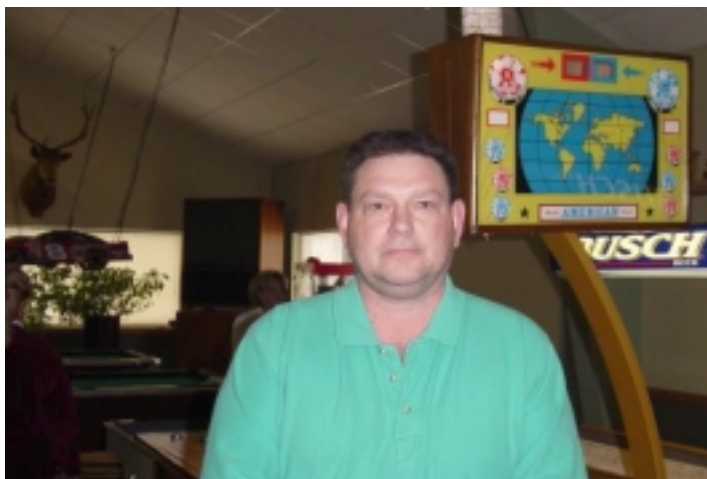

STOCKTON, Mo. — In walked through the front door of Doc's Shuffle Inn on Sat., Feb. 5th expecting a routine day at the bar. In the back of my mind, wishing some shufflers would show up for a few games. OH!! What a SURPRISE!! Mary Handy, Barn Butler, Justin and Pam, along with half the town of Stockton and many of my shuffleboard friends pulled one of the biggest surprises I've ever had.

Yes, it's true — Doc turned 50 on Jan. 23rd and 60 plus of my friends were at the bar to remind me of this sobering occasion. Well, it was sobering briefly, as you might imagine.

Great food, good drinks and a lot of shuffleboard followed. What a great day and night, as we played into the wee hours of the morning!

We started with an ABC Tournament and had 28 shooters.

WORDS OF THE GAME

Friends gave Craig "Doc" Bendickson a birthday surprise.

- First place went to Mark Gray-Barbie Gray-Barb McGinnis.
- Second place went to Angie Moore-Jennifer Frye-Todd Taylor.
- Third place was Steve Taylor-Junior Kennon-Louie Dray.

It was a great tournament and a lot of fun. I want to thank each and every one of you for organizing and taking time out of your busy schedules to make this one of the best days I've ever had.

Nelson Jennings, the late Fred Thumann and Jimmy Allis. "Things will never be the same," says Jimmy after Fred's death.

A Panacea for the ills of shuffleboard OR Linda is the Answer

by Robert L. Hoffman, Dallas, Texas

Before Eve disobeyed our Maker, everyone ran around naked and never worked. Joy abounded. Just think how Billy Mays and Darol Nelson would have delighted in that.

Even afterwards, society muddled along pretty well for several thousand years.

The demise of western civilization began in about 1680 with the repeal of the English common law "Rule of Thumb" which permitted a householder to beat his wife so long as the stick did not exceed the circumference or his thumb. (See: United States Commission on Civil Rights, Under the Rule of Thumb: Battered Women and the Administration of Justice — A Report of the United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1982.)

Women exploited the lack of discipline and became uppity. This nonsense accelerated in 1920 with the enactment of the 19th amendment granting women the right to vote and culminated when Hillary became empress in 1993. Society and shuffleboard have been in chaos ever since.

Back when we were kids and things made sense, single earner families were the norm. A man could take his lunch pail to work, return nine hours later, pay for the groceries for his housewife and 2.3 kids and still have time and money for shuffleboard.

But today' economic malaise and the stiffening of the D.U.I. laws have destroyed this idyllic situation.

The demise of the Board Talk, our inconsistent rules, our failure to pay the Bowers even for expenses, and our inability to promote our great game demand a solution. Things are so bad that Billy Mays has threatened to retire from the game for the 25th time and can't remember which arm was damaged by his stroke.

While all right thinking Americans still believe in male supremacy, practicality tells us that our sport will not survive unless we find someone to work both jobs, clean, cook, iron, run the pairings and drive us home after the tournament.

This is precisely the advice I've given my red neck friends about the outcome of the War Against Northern Aggression. "The war was lost. Richmond is no longer our rightful national capital. Get over it!"

While I know some of you will pejor me with the ultimate redundancy "liberal idiot," honesty compels me to bring the bad tidings: Women are the only answer!

Shuffleboard has proven that committees don't work and no sapient man would accept the job. One female has to be in charge. Besides, women don't like each other so we need just one to run things.

Linda Nobles for Czarina of Shuffleboard

Careful empirical research compels the conclusion that shuffleboard's only salvation would be the enthronement of Linda Nobles. She has all the qualifications:

She is Smart as a Whip

Linda and Mahlon have a combined IQ of 220. Linda has three fourths of that.

She Can Play

On March 6th, she won the Texas State Division II singles and placed in the bring partner. She is an outstanding player. Her only deficiency is an inability to trash talk.

She Gets the Work Done

She has to show up early for every major tournament, including Reno, the Board Talk, Del City, Houston Holiday Open, and the President's Day Open in California, and work 12 hours a day getting the director's ox out of the ditch. Remember Robert's Third Rule of Management: "Never gamble when you have a gut cinch: if you are going to mistreat someone, do it to the one you successfully overworked before." Why not put the lady who solves the problems in charge?

Robert Hoffman and his dog, Max, the only person who listens to him.

She is Easy to Put Upon

Each time I've played in Houston, I've bought Mahlon a beer at about 1:30 a.m. and lamented that I was in no shape to drive around to find a hotel. That's worked every time. Linda always drove us home where we joined throngs of other hangers-on who filled up every bed and couch in their house. And, the omelets and beef tenders Linda prepared before she left early to set up the tournament were outstanding. I may have been a bit generous, but you have to spend money to save money.

She Keeps Her Promises

You skeptics who think that Linda is too easy going and sweet to be honcho should consider this:

I fell asleep on Mahlon leather recliner while he was smoking a cigarette in the garage. (I knew Linda does not allow "cigarette" smoking indoors.) Unfortunately, my Cuban maduro burned a big hole in the chair. Linda woke me with a sweet voice that said: "If I catch you lighting a cigar in my house again, I'll snatch you bald headed." The rest is history. I shoulda believed her.

Linda Nobles is the Elixir for Shuffleboard!

Trust me: I'm a lawyer! With Linda running things play will skyrocket, the tournaments will run smoothly, the rules will be standardized, the Bowers will be paid, and we can return to sliding weights and complaining as we always have.

Tournament roundup

PENDLETON, Ind. — Rick Stocker completed a weekend sweep at the AmVets winning the singles and doubles events.

He and Larry Brown downed Dave Vondron-Jim Hamilton for the doubles crown on Saturday. Four teams showed up to play so the competition was 2/3, double elimination.

Stocker defeated 10 other players to win the singles on Sunday. His Saturday partner, Larry Brown, was second with Mary Brown finishing third.

Paben-McMellon win in Texas

PFLUGERVILLE, Texas — Doug Paben-Ronnie McMellon won the championship in the Bring Partner event during the St. Patrick's Day weekend tournament at Taz Country.

It was McMellon's first championship in a scheduled tournament.

Robert Hurst, Jr.-Guy Smarr finished second with Lynda French-Connie Culver in third in the 12-team field. It was Smarr's first money finish.

Tom French-Connie Culver won the Friday night draw.

Hohn's win Tacoma event

TACOMA, Wash. — Former Fir Cone Tavern owners Mel and Jeanette weren't shuffleboard players before they bought the Shelton shuffleboard hot spot several years ago.

Having recently sold the tavern, the Hohns downed a 16-team field to win the A-B tournament at Nifty Fifty's in Tacoma.

Mike-Kathy Keevile finished second with Al Pease and Bill Walker grabbing third. Mike and Hazel Thorpe finished fourth.

Judy George-Rick Gindt won the Friday night draw with Kenny Simmons-Tommy Freitag second and Jim Tribble-Bill Walker third.

National tournament needed

Hello:

Hope all is well with you and the Shuffleboard World!

I have a question:

Would you be interested in putting the sport of Shuffleboard on a National level with TV coverage, Newspaper coverage, etc and have the Board Talk (Bower's Ratings, eShuffleboard Newsletter, Lagging 4s) as the center of all this???

In all major sports in the USA, we all know who the top teams or players are.

For example, the points leader in Auto Racing, the #1 ranked golfer in the world, the top NBA Basketball team, the top Super Bowl team each year, the World Series champion, etc.

Who is the top US Shuffleboard player? Who is the top Shuffleboard team? Who is the #1 ranked Women's Shuffleboard Player?

Without a "Grand National" Tournament to decide based on "QUALIFIED" entries from all the 50 states, we can only state who in our opinion is in the top 5 players in the country, or the top 10, or.....etc.

Again, I mentioned TV and newspaper coverage. All we need is a

"SPONSOR", such as a Beer Company, Distributor, etc (like with NASCAR) to promote this.

IT WOULD WORK LIKE THIS:

"QUALIFYING" Tournaments would be held throughout the year in all 50 States at shuffleboard establishments who pay the Board Talk, say, $100 to the Board Talk (or whomever...) to list themselves as a "QUALIFYING" Tournament. Rules would include a minimum of 3 Boards with a Singles & Doubles Event. Other events may be held such as Draw Partner, Women's Singles, or Team Event with $100 going to Board Talk to qualify them for entry into the State Championship!

The top 3 players/teams would advance to their respective State Championships with again $100 going to the Board Talk or (Bowers Ratings, eShuffleboard Newsletter, Lagging4s - whoever establishes themselves as the leader for this) as a "QUALIFIED" State Tournament. Top 3 players/team would then go to the Board Talk National Tournament in Reno or Las Vegas or Texas, etc to have a national playoff to determine who is the best player, team, woman player, doubles in the country for that year.

Now the beauty of all this is that it will cost no money, I repeat, no money to those players who advance to the states and the nationals due to fund raising -(I have an excellent source)- for each tournament held!

Also, the $100 entry does not cost establishments anything due to the fundraising done!!

All the monies the Board Talk received from the "qualifying" Tournaments from around the 50 States would be used as "promotion money" for this huge national event. A Special Publication/flyer may be produced from the Board Talk (or whomever will work on this) for this tournament with advertisers (such as Shuffleboard Federation, American Shuffleboard Co, Triple Crown, Champion, Sun-Glo, etc, beer companies, etc) for this national tournament with TV and newspaper coverage.

Added monies may come from some of these sponsors, yearly subscripents to the Board Talk may be awarded to all "Qualified" Tournament Top 3 Finalists from all 50 States - (paid for from the proceeds of the $100 Qualifying Entry Fee), Shuffleboard Weights and Wax/Supplies may be offered as Prizes from the respective companies.

Etc Etc Etc.....Our sport needs this for national recognition!! I would like to assist in establishing criteria, sponsors for "Qualified" Tournaments to state qualified tournaments to a yearly grand national tourney sponsored by Board Talk or (Bowers Ratings, etc)!!! Again, who is the #1 Player or who is the #1 team doubles or ABC team in the country or the #1 Woman Player?

Now we will know and there will be no question.....until next year!

PS - All top 3 finalists will receive a paid entry into their respective State Championship as all Top 3 State Finalists will receive a paid entry into the Grand National Tournament!!! Details can be worked out. This can be started in 2005! Please email me with your thoughts and/or ideas!

Thanks,

Doug "Phil" Fridley
