Buhl wins Winston singles title

Three straight doubles crowns for Hitt, Holland

WINSTON, Ore. — He doesn't play as many tournaments as in the past, but that doesn't mean Doug Buhl, Springfield, Ore., isn't as competitive as he during the years when he built a Hall of Fame career as one of the best players in table shuffleboard.

Buhl showed that form over Labor Day weekend as he double-dipped Mike Kinney, Medford, Ore., to win Open Singles during the 2004 Winston Rural American tournament at the 99 Tavern and Willee's Cafe.

Buhl battled back through the losers' bracket to get a chance to play Kinney, who won the winners' bracket, and then dropped Kinney in both two-out-of-three matches.

The win was the second Winston singles crown for Buhl. In 2000 he shared the championship with another Oregonian, Darrol Nelson, who had to sit out this year's Rural American after injuring himself in a motorcycle crash.

Dave Keithahn from California claimed third place in the open singles with Spokane's Dan Hitt finishing fourth. There were 21 players in the tournament

Kenny Rogers, Medford, won the B Singles crown over 17 other players, defeating Bob Crum, Sacramento, in the title match. Bud Spier, Sunny Valley, Ore., was third with Mike Olson, Longview, Wash., finishing fourth.

Barbara Crum, Sacramento, won the C Singles in a field of 23 players. Joe Cupp, Coos Bay, Ore., was second with Joyce Davis, Nevada, third and Jimmy Marlow, Winston, fourth.

"Ed's (Brayman) software was MVP of the tourney. On Saturday it handled 62 single entries in 3 different events (Open, B & C's)," Fisher said after using Eddie Brayman's "Computer Peas" computer software to run the tournament.

Two Dans — Dan Holland, Winston, and Dan Hitt, Spokane — continued their domination of the Open Doubles in the Winston tournament, winning for the third straight year.

The topped Jeff "Two-Ton" Kersting, Shelton, Wash. and Gary

Kalamarski delivers lessons in life

The fact that Steve Kalamarski was the “B” player on a draw team that won an A-B tournament during the Rural American competition in Winston, Ore. over Labor Day weekend will go pretty much unnoticed in the world of table shuffleboard.

It shouldn't. Shuffleboard players around the world should be rising to cheer the effort it took Steve Kalamarski to even stand at a shuffleboard table, let alone win.

You see Steve had a stroke a few years back. Not a little stroke that makes your eye droop or slurs your speech a little.

Steve had a huge stroke that would've killed most of us.

Surviving the stroke wasn't good enough for Steve. He refuses to sit in his chair and let the rest of us pat him nicely on the back when someone wheels him into a tournament.

Oh, I forgot. No one wheels Steve Kalamarski into a tournament. He walks in under his own power.

And once he's there, it's to compete. He's not sitting around waiting for anyone's pity.

And he offers no sympathy for those who play him. Those who think that he's an easy mark because he can shoot with just one hand usually walk away from the table a loser.

It's not easy to be around Steve because he's the mirror that shows most of us how little we do with all that we have and take for granted.

So, a salute to Steve Kalamarski.

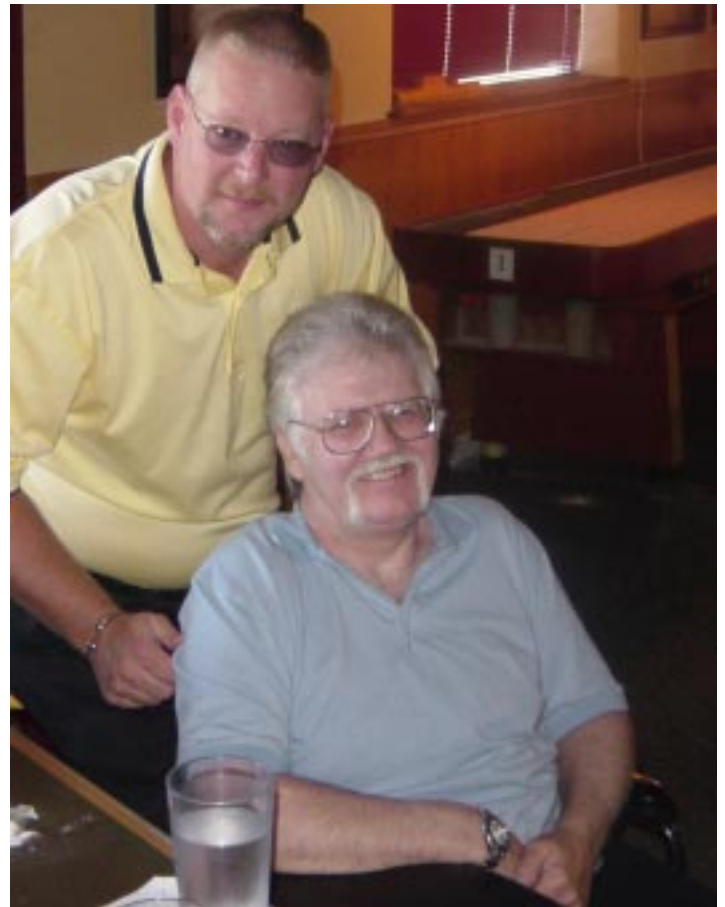

For fighting on.

For teaching the rest of us something.

For winning a tournament.

Another health note . . . word is being passed that California player Fred Thurman is undergoing chemotherapy for lung cancer. It goes without saying that everyone in shuffleboard is keeping Fred in their thoughts as he goes through this difficult time.

rave results during the Rural American tournament Labor Day weekend in Winston, Ore.

Players said they were impressed with how the software determined the brackets as the tournament went along.

Winston's Steve Fisher said the software showed its value in the singles, where there were more than 60 players in three divisions.

Eddie's going to do an interview with Lagging4s in the near future. Watch for it.

Speaking of computers, etc. Lagging4s web site is beginning to take shape and I hope it'll be up and running by the first of October. Hopefully, you'll be able to view the magazine there as well as previous editions and individual stories. If you have ideas for the web site send me an email at lagging4s@olympus.net.

The new web site address will be: lagging4s.com. No Ws.
